

'We actively teach reading and writing to inspire, empower and install in youngsters the motivation to communicate effectively for a variety of purposes' -

This occurs in your single English lessons.

The English Learning Journey

Our curriculum exposes you to the canon of literature alongside contemporary, diverse texts to help you understand the past, present and your role in future societies